NO CHANGE IN CONDITIONS PERTAINING TO COAL STRIKE

All Union Mines In This Section Are Still Idle

JOINT CONFERENCE ON TODAY

While the coal supply situation in the Pittsburg district is not likely to become acute the same conditions do not prevail in other parts of the country. The cold snap which arrived last night and which promises to remain for a few days, will make the coal shortage felt even to a greater extent than it really exists, because of the rapidly diminishing supply in many parts of the country.

No union mines are working in the Pittsburg district controlled by the United Mine Workers, but a sufficient quantity is being received from non-union sections in Fayette, Greene and Westmoreland counties supplemented by reserve stocks, to keep the local plants in operation indefinitely. In districts not so well situateed as to supply as the Pittsburg section the conditions are becoming very acute.

Just what will be accomplished at Washington in theconference now on between the miners and the operators is somewhat problematical. The government has taken a part in the discussion and through Dr. Garfield, fuel administrator has announced that a decision must be arrived at. The union miners are refraining from going to work until another agreement is reached, while the operators contend that the men should keep the mines in operation as the strike had been called off at the direction of the United States District Court at Indianapolis.

A joint session of miners and operators with Dr Garfield is scheduled for today, and some progress may be made toward a settlement. If this cannot be done it is a question as to what will be the next move in the situation.

JUVENILE COURT HEARING POSTPONED

The hearing held by the juvenile court committee at the borough building, in which a number of boys were under investigations charged with a number of local robberies, was continued until a probation officer can arrange to come from Washington. The boy brought from Morganza to identify the ones accused was not clear in his testimony and for this reason it was deemed expedient to postpone the hearing until a later date.

POLICE MAKE HAUL OF SIX SUSPECTS

Chief of Police Albright and his force of patrolmen made an early call this morning at the home of John Leppert, 205 Eighth street and arrested Leppert and five of his guests. The police have had the place under observation for some time, and this morning the visit was made. In addition to Leppert, who also appears to go by the name of John Nelson, Roy Sharon and John Sharkey were taken into custody, as well as three women who appeared to be making their headquarters there. The six prisoners were taken to the borough lockup where they will be held pending further investigation.

The arrest of two men in Pittsburg on Tuesday who were from this community and who had tried to dispose of four new tires, led to action on the part of the local police The two men arrested in Pittsburg are said to have been companions of the men arrested this morn

BOMBERS ARE STILL ACTIVE IN DONORA

Bomb fiends continue their activities in Donora in spite of the numerous arrests and convictions of radicals who were found guilty of using drastic means in their efforts to keep loyal workmen from employment Monday night two sticks of dynamite arranged with caps to cause their explosion were thrown at the house of Sam Sovock, on Chestnut street. One of the sticks struck a fence and exploded, while the other landed on the porch but failed to explode.

Sovock is an aged man, being about 65 years old, and is employed as a switchman in Donora. The railroad men were never out on strike, but in spite of this fact the radicals have threatened Sovock time and again and warned him to quit his job. The explosion did no damage to the house but demolished a part of the fence. Several suspects were arrested and placed in the borough lockup to await further investigation.

Feehan Takes Unequivocal Stand For the Government

Pittsburg, Pa.—At a special meeting of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor held in the Labor Temple here Saturday and Sunday, November 1 and 2 a resolution was adopted endorsing the coal strike.

The adoption of this resolution was vigorously opposed by Francis Feehan, the vice president of the Pennsyvania Federation of Labor and former president of District No. 5. United Mine Workers of America, but his attempts to be heard were so frequently interrupted that he subsequently wrote out his reasons for opposing the resolutions and sent them to the president of the Federation and to President Wilson, Secretary of Labor Wilson, Governor Sproul, John L. Lewis president of the Mine Workers Union and Phillip Murray, president of District No 5. His letter follows It is dated "Castle Shannon, Pa., Nov. 4, 1919," and is addressed to James H. Maurer. President Pennsylvania Federation of Labor. Harrisburg, Pa.

"Mr. President:

"I wish to set forth my reasons for opposing the resolutions brought before the Convention for the consideration of the delegates. In doing so I want it distinctly understood that what I may say is an honest expressin of my own opinion.

"I was electeed a delegate to this convention from the local union in which I hold membership, without any solicitation on my part. I was not present at the meeting when I was electeel and have received no instructions from th membership on the subject now before this convention for construction. What I may say may not be popular at this time or meet with the approval of the delegates to this Convention, but I have always had sufficient courage to express my opinon regardless of whom it pleases or displeases.

"I am opposed to this resolution because it is a violation of the restraining orled secured by the Department of Justice for the United States Government, and because the Miner's Organization engaging in strike in the manner it has, has thrust aside the fundamental principles of trade unionism and has resorted to direct action. The strike has resolved itself into a contest between the United States Government and the Mine Workers' Organization.

"I am confident that when men like W. B. Wilson who has given the

ROAD WORK FOR COMING YEAR IS DISCUSSED BY ASSOCIATION

Will Confer With Incoming Board of Commissioners on Plans

WILL INCREASE MEMBERSHIP

Members of the Washington county good roads association, together with a number of representative citizens of the county, held a meeting at Washington on Tuesday, at which time general plans for the campaign for the coming year were discussed with interest and enthusiasm.

While no meetings were held during the period covered by the primaries and the general election, plans had been prepared for road improvements which will be advocated and these were talked over by the committee and citizens in attendance. It is the aim of the organization and unanimously approved, that all the work should be outlined and definite policies decided upon. The work is being taken up with renewed interest and will be pushed with energy.

The committee also considered holding a public rally some time in December, and an effort will be made to have Governor Sproul and State Highway Commissioner Sadler attend. A special meeting of the executive committee has been called to confer with the new board of county commissioners, the members of which will take up their duties the first Monday in anuary. This conference will be, for the purpose of informally discussing with the commissioners the aims of the Washington County Good Roads Association, the program of which is being arranged and the system it will employ.

The chairman of the executive committee was authorized to name a committee which will co-operate with the townships of the county in the work of the association.

It was also decided that a campaign for increasing the membership of the association should be made, with a view to increasing interest in the movement and to get as large a representation as possible from every section of the county.

COMMISSIONERS WILL LIGHT STATE HIGHWAY

The township commissioneers of East Bethlehem township at a meeting last week decided to place lights along the state highway between Millsboro and Vestaburg. The plan will also provide for lights in Millsboro, Fredericktown and Vestaburg. Street lights of 250 c. p and 100 c p will be used, according to locality. This will be an improvement greatly appreciated by the public.

Williamson, Stewart McKean and Joseph Stech, has the invitation ready for mailing, some having been already sent out. The class will prepare and serve the banquet as a class. Invitations have been sent to the Young Men's class taught by O. M. Wise and the men are preparing a musical and literary program in keeping with the event. Due honor will be given the memory of the two young men who gave their lives, Arden Calvert and Raymond Craft.

JOHNSON WILL BEAT THEM

William E. Johnson, American representative and worker for the Anti-Saloon League in England, better known as "Pussyfoot" Johnson, is causing the Johnny Bull to sit up and take notice of the campaign he is now making in that country for prohibition.

Recently a large number of students in London broke up a meeting at which he was to speak, and taking Johnson rode him in mock triumph through the streets. Did Johnson get peeved, and call the police He did not! He sent a message reading as follows to the studests:—

"You had a good time. I had a good time. I have no complaint to make. If you want fun, get into the game against the greatest enemy of the human race—drink."

Speaking of the incident which caused so much notoriety the Christian Science Monitor of Boston says:

The debate had been arranged by the Overseas Club and the Parriotic League and from the first it was clear that there was going to be trouble. Large masses of students, carrying banners bearing such legends as "We Want eer and Stout," had marched down the Strand, and swarmed into the hall. At the commencement of the meeting the chairman and members of the Overseas Club attempted to obtain a fair hearing for the speakers, but the students cheered and booed, as only students can. They shouted, they sang, and they let off flashlights, interspersing these activities with ever louder and more insistent calls for "Pussyfoot," the name which Mr. Johnson has been given by student London, and by many others who disagree, or think they disagree, with the cause he advocates. And so, at last, in response to repeated cries of "We want Pussyfoot" Mr. Johnson arose to speak. Immediately the platform was besieged, and within a few minutes, the great coup of kidnaping "Pussyfoot," evidently the whole purpose of the raid, was an accomplished fact.

"Pussyfoot," however, was equal to the occasion. One quick glance round and he had grasped the situation. Here was a great army of boys, out to have a glorious time, wild with joy at having accomplished the grand feat. Well, as far as he was concerned, they should have all the fun they wanted. "Pussyfoot" "entered into the spirit of the thing and enjoyed himself." Amidst loud and triumphal cheers, with students surging round him on all sides he was carried, shoulder high, through the streets.

It is a procession which is likely to become historic. If there is one thing that the English boy is ready to "worship" it is "a sport." And "Pussyfoot" is undoubtedly a sport. All England, by this time, is quite satisfied on that point. His meeting had been broken up. He had been carried in mock triumph through the streets. His face had been badly cut with a stone hurled from the crowd. And yet, what was his "come back," as he, no doubt, would put it Why, just the message quoted at the beginning of this article, sent off with the imperturbably good-humored remark, "The boys are all right." One thing is quite certain, that the great majority of "the boys" are entirely convinced by this time that "Pussyfoot Johnson" is all right Indeed, it may well prove that "Pussyfoot's procession" was a great triumph for prohibition, not only in London, but throughout the United Kingdoms

Mr. Johnson has expressed the hope that as soon as he is able to do so, he will visit the college and address the students. If he does, "We want Pussyfoot" will certainly be heard again and Mr. Johnson may again experience difficulty in making a beginning. But, ultimately, he will be able to say every word he wants to say. His audience, moreover, will listen eagerly to every word, and not a few of thm, it may be ventured, will subsequently take "Pussyfoot's" advice and "get into the game."

MUST SPEAK ENGLISH

In the House of Representatives one day recently Victor Berger was delivering an address and Speaker Gillett [illegible] spoke such "broken English" that he did not understand what he was saying, says the New York Morning Telegraph. Think of a man aspiring to become a lawmaker of this land who does not know the language of the country. The time is at hand when every one in America should speak in English, the language in which the Constitution is written and in which all laws are written. This knowledge of English should be made compulsory and eespecially should be used at all public meetings. Make English the universal language of America and compel every man who wishes to cast a ballot prove that he can read and speak that language. If it is worth while to be an American citizen it is worth while to be able to speak as Americans do and to read the newspapers that are published in this country.

There is too much offensive foreign talk going on in different parts of the country. Plots are made in alien speech usually, and treason pamphlets are published in various tongues. The law can deal with that matter, and should do so with speed.

Another matter: No foreigners should be permitted to live for any length of time in America—say ten years—unless he becomes a naturalized citizen of this country. Many persons are acquainted with men born in European countries who make a boast of the fact that they are not Americans, that they owe no allegiance to this land and remain proudly foreigners, although they earn their living here and are educating their children in this country. The foreigners who will neither learn the speech of native Americans nor become in fact one of them has no place in the country. Frequently he is a menace, always he is an offense.

THE PAPER SITUATION

Newspaper publishers are facing a serious situation in the way of a supply of news print, which is becoming very scarce and very high in price. Some publications even now are having difficulties in getting a sufficient quantity of white paper with which to print their papers, and the conditions do not offer much improvement for the future. It is reported that in some instances as high as 13 cents a pound have been offered for white paper, or at the rate of $260 per ton, a figure over five times as high as paper sold a few years ago. The situation has become so serious that a meeting of publishers in southwestern Pennsylvania will be held in Pittsburg on Thursday to give consideration to the paper supply, and to take some action as to reducing the size of newspapers and restricting the advertising.

The general public is unaware of the serious condition which now confronts publishers, which, if it becomes more acute, will create a situation which will likely cause quite a number of the smaller publications to suspend for a time at least. During the war it was possible to get paper with but little difficulty, but since the cessation of hostilities the supply appears to have dwindled from time to time until now a serious problem faces every publisher. Unless relief comes speedily it will create a situation unique in the history of newspaper publication, but one which will be very expensive to the owners of newspapers.

Observers in Phladelphia, watching a traffic policeman, one of whose duties is to determine whether motor cars have or have not been left standing as long as the law allows, have wondered at seeing him patting the seat behind the driving wheel. Seemingly he felt very friendly toward the automobiles; but automobiles are not horses, and even their most enthusiastic admirers have no inclination to pet them. The officer, it is interesting to learn through the North American, has discovered a way of determining how long a car has been standing. If the seat is quite warm he knows that the car has just been left; if it is barely warm, he knows that it has been left longer; if it feels cool, he believes the time is nearly up; and if it feels cold, for the legal limit is short at that place, he is reasonably certain it has been there longer than it should be.

... worry about small things, maybe it will keep your mind off the big ones.

The treaty of peace, to which is attached the covenant of the league of nations, is reported as being in critical danger of being "pocketed" by the President if the Senate adheres to all of the reservations already adopted. Some definte action is expected this week on the measure, as the Senate has adopted a cloture, limiting debate, and may reach a final vote before the end of the week. While there are those who appear to want the treaty and covenant just as it came from Paris, there is also what looks like a majority of the people against any acceptance of the measure unless it is clearly interpreted by reservations such as the Senate had already adopted. If the American people think the treaty will eventually be approved with reservations, but if they think otherwise defeat will likely be the result of the deliberations.

CHARLEROI PARTY VISITS PERRYOPOLIS

Tuesday evening thirty-seven members of the First Christian church of Charleroi motored to Perryopolis and attended evangelistic services now being held in the church at that place under direction of the minister Rev. G. W. Wharton and Mrs. Swaney, leader of songs. Seven automobiles were utilized for the trip and good time was made both going and coming. The Charleroi visitors enjoyed the meeting very much, at which three conversions were announced. On the way home the party ran into the first snow storm of the season when they reached Fayette City.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Reeves, Lock Hill.

HOW MANY WOMEN DO KNOW

Who can say they are perfectly well? "I am tired all the time." "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly." "I can hardly drag around today." and all such expressions are characteristic of women who have overtaxed their strength until headaches, backache, nervousness, dragging-down pain, irregularities and the blues, symptoms of a female weakness have developed. Women who are in this condition may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore them to health and strength.

FEEHAN TAKES UNEQUIVOCAL STAND FOR GOVERNMENT

greatest part of his life to organizing and constructing this organization, who has ably defended labor and voted for labor legislation, and the protection of the workers in the House of Congress, who now represents labor throughout the country, as Cabinet Officer of the Department of Labor in the highest council of the Nation, takes the position that the policy of the mine workers' organization and the strike ordered by them is wrong, and when John P. White, former International President, one of the greatest constructive leaders the labor movement has ever had, disapproves of the policy pursued by the miners that the method of procedure employed by our organization is wrong and that the present strike is not in accordance with the principles of trade unionism and is a resort to direct action.

The miners are not now striking against coal operators, but are striking directly at the United States Government. Since my earliest boyhood I have made every effort that I possessed to improve the conditions of employment and build up this great miners' organization. I have served the organization in various capacities and as president of District No. 5 I have assisted in negotiating four two-year contracts, which extended a period of eight years. I have always been loyal and expect to remain so to the principles of trade union movement.

Since our organization is engaged in a contest with the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, I am compelled to decide as to which side of the conflict I am to take and without hesitation I say emphatically that I will take my stand with the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. A great American statesman once said: "MY COUNTRY, MAY IT EVEN BE RIGHT, BUT RIGHT OR WRONG MY COUNTRY." My first allegiance is to my Government in all questions of this nature. I am heartily in sympathy with any legitimate movement to improve the conditions of employment and increase the wages of the mine workers and I contend that this would have been successfully accomplished if this strike had not been called, and the unusual custom employed in negotiating agreements had been practiced.

"The resolution misrepresents the fact wherein it statees that the mine workers inaugurated the strike after all efforts to negotiate a settlement had failed. The facts are the mine workers inaugurated and decided upon a date for the strike to take effect before negotiations were entered into with the operators.

"In all my experience I cannot recall an instance where a policy of this kind was pursued. I have no objection to the resolution protesting against the action taken by the Government, as I believe that we have a lawful right at all times to petition and protest. I do however object to that part of the resolution that pledges support of any kind to the mine workers of this country in the revolt against our Government, and I fear that pledging such support is violating the restraining order issued by the Federal Courts representing our Government. As I have previously stated, I will support our Government.

"I sincerely regret that the splendid record of achievement on the part of the mine workers in support of our Government since war was declared was marred by this strike before peace was declared. The existing contract was made by the representatives of the Government with the miners and operators, acting with authority from our law making bodies. The Government has declared we are still officially at war and will be until peace is declared.

"The strike has been declared illegal and a violation of our laws and I contend that the breaking of this agreement is a repudiation of the fundamental principles upon which the trade union movement is organized, and is a direct assault on the principle of collective bargaining for which countless thousands of unorganized workmen in our many industries are striking for and demanding from their employers. The Government has expressed its determination to force compliance with the provisions of the agreement. To continue the strike under these circumstances means open rebellion against our Government. Lincoln said: "The Republic must and will be preserved," and such an attempt can have but one ending President Wilson has taken practically the same position. I see nothing but disaster resulting from the policy that is being pursued and knowing the mine workers as I do, I am firmly convinced that had they known in convention that the strike policy recommended to them for adoption was going to bring them in conflict with Government and was in violation of our laws, this action would not have been taken and the membership of the organization who have not as yet had an opportunity to vote, and express themselves as to whether they favor the strike or not, will, I am sure, hasten to correct the wrong and the injustice done by having the strike called off, and negotiations entered into accordance with the principles of trade unionism, on the basis that has proven so successful in the past, which has brought to them substantial increases in their wages and better conditions of employment as proposed by Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson. The statement made to this Convention that his hands are tied because he is a Government Official and has taken sides with the Government, is a gross injustice to him. W. B. Wilson might properly be regarded as the father of the United States Mine Workers associated with former President John Mitchell, it prospered and became strong and powerful, earned and retained the respect and confidence of the working people and the public throughout this and other countries and was known throughout the world as the greatest and most powerful organization of any industry that ever came into being.

"At Indianapolis, a little over ten years ago, I listened to the farewell address of that peerless leader of labor the late John Mitchell, then President of our Organization, retiring after ten long years of service, broken in health from his strenuous work which no doubt was responsible for his death recently, having only attained the age of forty-nine years. When he said to those assembled, "Strong and powerful as your organization may be, always remember it is not a Gibraltar." I am sure it was never intended that this organization should use its power and strength to strangle our industrial system or destroy the greatest and most free republic that has ever been reareed in th civilization of man. It was never intended to destroy the human family, as it is now striving to do by spreading desolation, want, cold and starvation throughout the land. In my time I have created strikes. I have led strikes I have served as a meditator in the settlement of many strikes, and I am convinced this strike is unjustifiable and unnecessary and a satisfactory settlement can be effected in the manner I have indicated.

"Were the United Mine Workers strong and powerful enough to force our Government to recede from the position they have taken, this should not be done, not even attempted. Sampson was strong and powerful and pulled the pillars from the temple with all his destructive force and destroyed himself and those assembled. What we need in this time of stress following this great world's war, is constructive energetic work on the part of all our citizens, and re-establish without delay normal peaceful conditions of life.

"I have endeavored to set forth my reasons for the position I take and I have cause to believe that by this time, reason has supplanted passion and the mine workeers will take their place at their post of duty for the welfare of themselves, their wives and children, and for the good of all the people, and the preservation of their Organization.

MAJESTIC THEATRE
Charleroi, Pa.

Dear Zane Grey Reader:

Do you remember beautiful Nell Belding? And Mercedes Castaneda, Fighting Dick Gale, who went into Hell for a woman? Do you remember Diablo, the treacherous white horse and the race with Blanco Sol? Do you remember the battle in the Crater and the wonderful Yaqui who ever remembered a white man's kindness?

Of course you do!

ZANE GREY'S wonderful people in "DESERT GOLD."

When you read the story how it gripped and thrilled you.

Now you have the opportunity to see them in the flesh on the screen in a wonderful motion picturization of "DESERT GOLD," made under the personal supervision of the author. While there have been other fine Zane Grey pictures from his famous stories, this is the first of his stories that Zane Grey himself has ever had a hand in making.

I will present at THE MAJESTIC THEATRE on Thursday & Friday "DESERT GOLD," which is enacted by a notable all-star cast headed by E. K. Lincoln (he's Dick Gale), Russell Simpson, Margery Wilson, Eileen Percy, Edward Coxen, Walter Long, Frank Lanning and directed by T. Hayes Hunter.

"DESERT GOLD" is the most enthralling and gripping motion picture you have ever seen.

If you want to freshen up on the story and have worn your copy to a frazzle lending it to friends you can obtain a new edition, just out, on sale at Mights Book Store, McKean avenue. Be sure and see his great window display of Zane Grey's novels.

I'll save a seat for you.

Cordially,
Michael Rosenbloom

BIG ORDER FOR RED CROSS SEALS

Washington, Pa. November 18—Five hundred thousand Christmas Red Cross Seals have been ordered from State Seal Headquarters at Harrisburg for Washington County outside of the river towns by the Public Health Association which has just been organized and which will conduct the seal sale in Washington County, except the river towns, beginning December 1st.

The sale of this quota will provide $5,000. three-fourths of which remains in Washington County for a greater fight against the white plague. This will mean a larger program toward improving the public health, especially among children.

Dr. E. M. Hazlett is chairman the Public Health Association.

The river towns will also carry on active seal sales. Charleroi, which had not intended putting on a sale has now ordered 100,000 seals. Monongahela and Donora have each sent for 100,000 seals, making 300,000 for Washington County.

There were 101 deaths from tuberculosis in 1917 in Washington County.

ASK POLICE TO ASSIST IN SEARCH

The Charleroi police department has been advised that warrants have been issued for the arrest of Richard (alias "Rainbow") Taylor, mulatto, who is alleged to have kidnaped Lucy Diers, of Rahway, N. J., on Saturday, November 1, 1919. Taylor has a prison record in Stamford, Conn. Henry Diers, father of the girl, is offering through Chief of Police David M. Rumsey of Rahway, N. J., a liberal reward for the arrest of the negro, and information regarding the girl.

CONSTABLE KEEPS AFTER PUNCHBOARDS

Constable Titus, recently re-elected in Donora, has given notice that all gambling devices in the way of gambling boards and games of chance must cease in that town, otherwise he will prosecute those who retain them. Recently a crusade was made in the town against that form of gambling and all dealers notified to cease operating such devices. According to Constable Titus any further violation of the order will be followed by prosecutions.

MANY AMERICANS COME TO DONORA

Within the past few days many citizens of Donora have begun housing American mill workers who have arrived in that town from other mill districts since the strike began to wane. Many new Americans have already been added to the population of the town and many of them have expressed a desire to bring their families to that locality as soon as housing can be provided.

The new men are for the most part skilled men, and they have been given places of other men who have decided to remain away from their jobs. It is announced that it is the intention to keep these new citizens in Donora and the appeals for rooms have been liberally responded to since the call was sent out a few days ago.

SUGAR FAMINE BROKEN SATURDAY IN DONORA

The sugar famine which has prevailed in Donora for several days was broken on Saturday last by the arrival of a large consignment in that town. It was sold by groceries at 12 cents per pound.

PUSHING WORK ON CONCRETE ROAD

Excellent progress is being made on the concrete highway now being constructed in East Bethlehem township, and which when completed will form the principal street of Fredericktown. On Sunday, the 9th inst., the contractors, Brooks & Cornish, placed 373 linear feet of concrete, and this distance would have been added to had the teams been able to keep the supply of sand and stone to keep the mixer in operation. The contractors are making an effort to finish the road to Fredericktown before winter sets in, and if this is accomplished, it is likely operations will cease until next spring. The firm has encountered a number of obstacles on the way and have been compelled to do some heavy grading, but in spite of these difficulties the work has been pushed with vigor and in a way to compel the admiration of the people of that district, who are anxious to have the road completed as soon as possible.

NEW DETAIL OF MEN AT LOCK FOUR

A new detail of United States Armymen from the detachment now stationed at Brownsville, arrived at Lock No. 4 on Tuesday for a ten-day tour of duty. The men who had been on duty the past ten days returned to Brownsville. The detachments for Locks 1, 2, 3 and 4 arrived here on the steamer Kitanning, which went as far as lock No. 3, where an exchange was made with the steamer Swan and the details taken on to Nos. 2 and 1. The men composing the detachment which was on duty last week were very much pleased with their new assignment here, and would have preferred to remain longer on duty at the local lock, but regulations required that they return to the headquarters of the detachment.

What Nuxated Iron Is Made From

Sworn Statement of Composition of Its Formula

It increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances.

The Board of Directors have authorized publication of the sworn statement of the composition of Nuxated Iron—one of the most widely used tonics and blood builders in the world—so that the public may examine for themselves and judge as to its merits.

It is generally admitted that no other remedy in the history of the world has ever been so successful in overcoming so many forms of disease and suffering as organic iron. Over 3,000,000 people annually use it in America alone. Among those who have used and endorse it are many physicians, former United States Senators and members of Congress, and former High Officials.

Newspapers everywhere are authorized to accept this statement for the benefit of their readers. It is suggested that physicians make a record of it and keep it for future reference so that they may refer to it when questions of patients concerning iron arise. Everybody is advised to cut it out and keep it. A copy of the actual sworn statement will be sent to anyone who desires them. It is as follows:

Iron Peptonate (Special specific Standard and Quantity not given)
Sodium Glycerophosphates U.S.P. (Manganese) Calcium Glycerophosphates U.S.P. (Aluminum)
P E Nux Vomica U.S.P.
Cascara Bark
Magnesium Carbonate
Powdered Ginger U.S.P.
Oil Cassia Cinnamon U.S.P.
Calcium Carbonate Precip. U.S.P.

Each dose of two tablets of Nuxated Iron contains one and one-half grains of organic iron in the form of iron peptonate of a special specific standard which in our opinion possesses superior qualities to any other known form of iron. By using other forms of Iron Peptonate we could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets at less than one-fourth the cost to us and by using metallic iron we could have accomplished the same thing at less than one-twelfth the cost, but by so doing we must have most certainly impaired their therapeutic efficacy. Glycerophosphates used in Nuxated Iron is one of the most expensive ingredients known. It is especially recommended by physicians for nervous, run-down conditions, as it quickly helps to create new, rich blood, thereby toning up the entire system. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron is not a secret remedy but one which is known to the medical profession everywhere and widely prescribed by them. Nuxated Iron is not recommended for use in cases of specific illness, but only as a tonic, strength and blood builder, in case of illness always consult your family physician and be guided by his advice. If in doubt as to whether or not you need a tonic, ask your doctor, as we do not want to sell you Nuxated Iron if you do not need it. If you should use it and it does not help you, notify us and we will return your money. It is sold by all druggists. Vim Health Laboratories, Detroit, Mich.

A man up in Uniontown who lost his pocketbook containing some cash, Liberty bond coupons, cards of fraternal organizations and other valuables, has offered a reward of two quarts of gin 101 proof, for the return of the lost property. Evidently money is no object to that man And we wonder where he got the gin.

The memorial dedicated to the soldiers of the world war from Fredericktown and vicinity was unveiled on Sunday afternoon last with appropriate ceremonies. A granite monument, upon which is placed a bronze plate bearing the names of 228 men who lived and workeed in East Bethlehem township, and who enlisted from that district, was erected on the lawn of the Union public school, where it will be a perpetual memorial to the men who served their country.
